

CHURCH CIRCLES

Mayfield Presbytery and Kentucky Synod This Month.

THE LOCAL DELEGATES

There Will Be Representatives From Many Churches in Attendance.

PADUCAH CONVOCATION TODAY

The Mayfield Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian church will meet next Saturday morning at 11 o'clock at Bayou Church, three miles from Water Valley, Ky. The opening sermon will be preached by Rev. J. D. Kirkpatrick of Paducah, retiring moderator of the Presbytery. Several important questions will come up for consideration during the session, among them: "Whether or not probationers for the ministry, marrying before they are ordained shall be given financial aid in completing their education. It is expected that there will be quite a warm fight on this question.

The local church will be represented by Mr. W. P. Kirkpatrick, with Mr. M. Nance as alternate. Rev. J. C. Reid is stated clerk and treasurer of the Presbytery.

The local Christian Endeavor Society will be represented by Miss Pearl Kirkpatrick.

The Kentucky Synod of Cumberland Presbyterian church composed of all ministers in the bonds of the Synod and a representative from each church in the Synod will meet in Auburn, Ky., Tuesday evening, October 22 at 7:30 o'clock. Special interest attaches to this meeting owing to the fact that the Synod training school, Auburn Seminary, is located at this place.

Rev. J. C. Reid, of the city, is a member of the Synod church extension committee and will leave Monday morning the 21st, to attend a meeting of this committee before the Synod convenes.

The representative from the local church will be Captain James Koger, with Mr. W. B. Kennedy as alternate.

The Paducah convocation of the Episcopal church began this morning at Hopkinstown, to last three days. Rev. B. E. Reed, of the city, the dean, is attending. The program is as follows:

Tuesday, Oct. 8, 7:30 p. m.—Services and sermon. Rev. Charles P. Redeford will preach.

Wednesday, Oct. 9, 10:30 a. m.—Service. Holy communion sermon. Rev. W. H. Marshall will deliver the sermon. At the evening service at 7:30 o'clock, Rev. H. G. England will occupy the pulpit.

Thursday, October 10, 7:30—Evening service, conducted by Rev. B. E. Reed, the dean.

There will be daily business sessions of the convention. The public is cordially invited to attend.

WAS UNAVOIDABLE.

THIS SAY THE EVANSVILLE PAPERS WILL BE THE VERDICT.

The Evansville papers of yesterday say that it is generally understood and believed in river circles there that the two Evansville inspectors who last week heard the evidence in the City of Cincinnati disaster here, will report that the accident was unavoidable, which has been expected all along.

The report has not yet been made public.

TRAIN WRECKED.

ONE DEAD AND ONE DYING AS A RESULT.

Pineville, Ky., Oct. 8.—At Wasoto, Ky., on the L. and N. a freight train was wrecked last night. Engineer Shumate was killed and Fireman Hart fatally hurt. It is believed that the wreckers intended to wreck the fast passenger train due for the south a short time later. There is no clue to the identity of the wreckers, but detectives are at work on the case.

WAS A JOKE.

The announcement of the marriage of Mr. Mito Korta, of Owensboro, in the Sun yesterday was taken from the printed announcement of the wedding, but it develops that it was only a practical joke some of Mr. Korta's friends in Owensboro played on him, and there is no such young lady residing there. Only one of the cards was printed, and it seems it happened to fall into the hands of a reporter.

THE WEATHER.

Rain late tonight. Warmer Wednesday, with rain.

THE SICK.

Many Cases of Mild Sore Throat are Reported.

Notes From the City Hospital—Mr. Joe Bishop Improved Today.

The scarlet fever is slowly dying out and no new cases are reported. There are several cases of diphtheria reported but none are severe. There are many cases of severe sore throat, but it has not been settled what they are. It is thought that they are mild form of diphtheria but as the patients respond to the treatment readily it is thought that this theory may be incorrect.

Miss Shelton, of 522 Norton street, is on the sick list.

Allan, the small son of Councilman Bondurant, is ill.

Dewey, the small son of Mr. Stokes Payne, is on the sick list.

Mrs. McAdams, wife of the well known gardener, is ill.

Mrs. Robert Fondaw, of North Twelfth street, suffered a relapse yesterday.

Mr. Billy Lampman, the veteran comedian who has been at the city hospital for the past several months, will be removed to the county hospital today if he consents to go. The order was gotten out yesterday, as his time at the city hospital has long been expired, but he refused to go. He is a sufferer of Bright's disease and has been very low for the past several weeks. He is also becoming demented and for the past two months he has been slowly losing his mind. The derangement is of a mild nature however, and he is not dangerous.

A patient at the city hospital named Cole, totally blind, was this morning removed to his former home at the old post house and an attempt to place him in the blind asylum will shortly be made.

Mr. Joe Bishop is much improved today and was this morning able to sit up for a short time. A hemorrhage of the brain caused a temporary paralysis but he is now on fair road to recovery his many friends will be pleased to learn.

Mr. F. C. Shafer, the typewriter drummer, is able to be out, his many friends will be pleased to learn. He had been ill at the Palmer for several weeks.

Mrs. May O'Brien was brought into the city today at noon from Union City, where she has been ill. Mrs. H. E. Thompson accompanied her home. She is somewhat improved, and her many friends will be glad to learn that her illness is not serious.

GOT JUDGMENT.

VINSON CASE DECIDED AT BENTON YESTERDAY AFTER-NOON.

The damage suits for $5,000 were decided in the Benton circuit court yesterday afternoon, after having been on trial several days.

James Vinson and his wife, Mrs. J. P. Vinson, claim they were to get off an Illinois Central train at Gilbertsville, and the conductor gave the signal to start before they were off, throwing them violently to the ground when the train started and badly injuring them.

The jury gave Mrs. Vinson $100 and Mr. Vinson $400. A new trial will probably be asked.

PROSPEROUS FARMER.

BUT HE SUICIDES BY HANGING HIMSELF IN THE BARN.

Columbia, Ky., Oct. 8.—Charles M. Mader, a prosperous farmer near the city, suicided this morning by hanging himself in the barn. He had sold one farm, and was arranging to sell the other and locate in Oklahoma. He was wealthy, in excellent health, and no cause is known for his deed.

The engagement of this popular couple was announced several months ago. Miss Wallerstein is eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wallerstein of North Seventh street, and Mr. Levy is a prosperous young business man of St. Louis.

The list of attendants is not yet ready for publication, but Miss May Wallerstein, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor, and Mr. James Greenbaum of the city best man. After the ceremony there will be a reception at the house, and the couple will go east on a bridal tour. Cards have been sent to friends outside the city.

The marriage of Miss Mamie Judge and Mr. Joe Yeiser will take place as previously announced, at the St. Francis De Sales church parsonage tomorrow morning, Rev. Father Jansen officiating. The couple leave at 11:30 o'clock for an eastern bridal tour.

A marriage at Louisville tomorrow is of interest in Paducah as the bride is a relative of Mr. Louis Rubel, of Paducah. The Times says:

"The marriage of Miss Neal Rubel to Mr. William Edgar Ross will be solemnized at the Fourth avenue Methodist church on Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock. Miss Rubel is the daughter of Mr. R. O. Rubel and is one of the most popular girls of the younger set in the Highlands. Mr. Ross, who is at present engaged in business at Beard's, is a son of Mr. A. J. Ross. Rev. R. B. Neal, of Grayson, Ky., for whom the bride-to-be is named, will officiate. After a trip to Buffalo and eastern cities the couple will be at home at Beard's, Ky."

GOOD CROWD.

Mr. Ed Lucas Making a Fine Canvass For County Clerk.

Addressed Many Voters at Farley's in Mechanicsburg Last Night.

Col. Ed Lucas, a candidate for county clerk, and nominee of the Republicans of McCracken county, spoke to a large crowd at Farley's, in Mechanicsburg, last night, and made a fine impression. Col. Lucas is an eloquent speaker, and went after his Democratic opponent in great shape. He had previously invited Mr. Graham to attend and divide time, but Mr. Graham declined, and was not present. Mr. Lucas made a good talk, and impressed everybody most favorably.

At the conclusion of his speech he created much merriment. He is something of a ventriloquist, and asked the imaginary county clerk, Mr. Graham, a number of questions, and the audience was greatly pleased with the replies, which seemed to come from the absent official himself.

Col. Lucas is greatly encouraged over his canvass.

TALENTED ARTIST.

MR. F. MOSTYN KELLY, THE CARTOONIST, WITH "AT THE CROSS ROADS."

Mr. Frank Mostyn Kelly, who is in "At the Cross Roads" is a cartoonist of great ability, and has done work on all the New York dramatic papers. He is the artist who drew the cartoons of Manager J. E. English when the latter was in New York and is his guest while in the city. Mr. Kelly is a talented actor, and takes the part of "Tom Martin" on tonight's bill.

ELECTION IN INDIANA.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 8.—There is a lively mayoralty election on here today, with five tickets in the field.

REFUSED TO VACATE

Judge Cantrill Insists On Trying the Powers Case At Georgetown.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 8.—The defense today submitted a long affidavit asking Judge Cantrill to vacate the bench in the Caleb Powers' case, because of partisan rancor.

Prosecuting Attorney Franklin and Col. Tom Campbell, for the prosecution, made lengthy speeches arguing that Cantrill had exhibited no partisan feeling in former trials, and asserting an abiding belief in his integrity and complete fairness.

Judge Cantrill then said that the affidavit was not filed before he began hearing motions and references in the case, and that he therefore refused to vacate. The Powers case was then called for trial.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY

E. L. McGee Arrested Last Night For Short-Changing.

He Declares He is the Wrong Man.—Police Court Proceedings.

E. L. McGee, a man who takes orders for enlarging pictures, was arrested last night on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses by "short-changing" Mrs. George Ravleigh, wife of the druggist, at Sixth and Clay streets. It will be remembered that when Buffalo Bill was here last Thursday a man made a five-cent purchase at Mr. Ravleigh's and tendered a ten dollar bill. He manipulated it in such a way as to defraud Mrs. Ravleigh out of five dollars. She identifies McGee as the man, but he denies that he is, and says he was not there, and is entirely innocent. The case was called this morning and continued.

Katherine Kramer and Leon Caloune were fined $5 and costs each for a breach of ordinance.

Hamilton Howard was fined $1 and costs for a plain drunk.

LEFT TODAY.

PRISONERS TAKEN TO THE FRANKFORT PENITENTIARY.

Minnie Dawson, colored, sentenced to two years for stealing goods from the Rieke residence; Augusta Ligon, colored, sentenced to two years for robbing a little girl of $1; and Allie Morton, for stealing $10 from A. Yopp, the grocer, were taken to Frankfort today at noon to the state penitentiary. Sheriff Tobe Rogers and County Attorney Graves were in charge of the prisoners.

Alex Watkins, of the South Side, a small boy, was taken to the reform school. Dora, the six years old daughter of Allie Staten, of Court street, was taken to the reform school also. There was some others boy sentenced to the reform school but he could not be captured and was left alone for the present. He will be captured and taken on later. His name is Alex Hutchinson and he has a very bad reputation. The boy lived near Grahamville and has been in several scrapes, one when he ran a negro for several blocks with a shotgun.

JUDGE SANDERS' BIRTHDAY.

Judge D. L. Sanders, the popular and respected judge of the police court, is 61 years old today, and his friends in a quiet way are helping him celebrate. Judge Sanders has for many years been a resident of Paducah, but is today apparently as young as he was twenty years ago, and he feels as young. The judge is liked by everybody, and all hope he has many prosperous years yet before him.

DIVORCE SUITS.

COUPLES WHO SEEK TO SEVER THE MARRIAGE TIES.

Two divorce suits were filed in the circuit clerk's office this morning. Lillie Sherron sues her husband, Thomas Sherron for divorce and the restoration of her maiden name, Lillie Fordlaw. She gives abandonment and non-support for grounds for the action. Ella Ford filed suit against her husband, Squire Ford, for a divorce and the custody of her child, Ethel May Ford, giving three years separation her grounds for the action.

FILES ARTICLES.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 8.—The Wick-Life Petroleum company of Ball's county, with $150,000 capital stock, has filed articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state. P. G. Farrow, of Cairo, Ill., and R. W. Cowning, of Fulton are the chief stockholders.

SIX ARE DEAD

The Factions Armed and Preparing For More Trouble.

THE FEUD IS RENEWED

Sympathizers Have Joined the Two Clans.—Both Sides Are Well Armed.

ANOTHER CLASH REPORTED

Middlesboro, Ky., Oct. 8.—It is hourly expected that there will be further bloodshed at Big Springs, Claiborne county, Tennessee, the scene of Sunday's tragedy. Both sides are arming for the fray and gathering in large numbers, and twenty left here today to join the Chadwell forces.

William Morgan and Ross Chadwell, who were injured in the fight Sunday, have since died, making the sixth victim.

SECOND CLASH REPORTED.

Middlesboro, Ky., Oct. 8.—The situation at Big Springs, Tenn., where at the Union Baptist church four members of the Chadwell and the Morgan factions were killed and five wounded, is indeed gloomy tonight, and it is the general opinion that more bloodshed is certain to follow. A report reached here by way of Tazewell, Tenn., that a second clash between the factions had occurred, but the story is as yet unconfirmed. At noon, when a horseman arrived here from Big Springs, no more trouble had occurred, although the feeling was at tension. Both factions were barricaded in their homes and were armed to the teeth. Many believe that they are waiting for darkness to renew the trouble. Two members of each faction came to Cumberland Gap today and secured a large supply of ammunition.

SCHOOL BOARD.

Lack of Quorum Handicaps the Trustees in Work.

Another Meeting Called For This Evening to Finish Up.

President Reddick, Secretary Rose and Trustees Mammen, McNichol, Bauer, Weille and Terrell were present at the called meeting of the board of education last night.

Reports from Superintendent Hatfield and the building committee were read, but the recommendations could not be acted on, as there was not a quorum to make an appropriation.

The resignation of Trustee Utterback was read, but as it had not been included in the call for the meeting, it could not be considered, and was deferred. It is probable that no success or will be elected, as it is only a month until the election, when one will be chosen by the people.

SERIOUS INJURY.

MR. GEORGE OVERSTREET FALLS WHILE HUNTING COONS.

Mr. George Overstreet, the well known painter, lies at his home near Ninth and Clay streets in a very serious condition the result of a fall last night.

He started out with Mr. Sam Holland last night to hunt coons and had bagged three opossums before a coon was treed. Finally a coon was treed near the five mile church on the Cairo road and Mr. Overstreet climbed up about twenty feet to shake him down. He stepped on a rotten limb which broke and threw him to the ground. He is badly bruised about the body and one shoulder blade is badly crushed. He is internally injured it is thought but is now in a far better condition than he was when brought to the city. He was unconscious until this morning but now has a clear head and recognizes his friends. Dr. Griffith was called and dressed the injuries.

THE SCHLEY COURT.

COMMANDER WAINRIGHT IS THE STAR WITNESS FOR TODAY.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Captain Folger, Lieut. Dyson and Captain Hodgson were recalled today in the Schley case. Then Commander Wainright, who was expected to be the star witness of the day, followed.

Judge James Campbell returned this morning from Smithland.

ANNUAL BANQUET

A Large Gathering at the Y. M. C. A. Hall Last Night.

The Event Was a Most Enjoyable One in Every Respect.

The annual banquet of the Young Men's Christian Association last evening was a most delightful occasion, and quite a number of guests were present. The three lower rooms of the association were thrown into one and presented a most festive scene. They were charmingly decorated in palms, fern, asparagus, golden rod, and other flowers. In the back parlor the table was arranged and was a triumph of artistic beauty. Here the autumnal colors of red and yellow were emphasized by brilliant dahlias and golden rod. The table was most attractive with cut glass and dainty china, varied peppermints beside. The refreshments were elaborate and delightful, and were served by the ladies of the First Presbyterian church, who also, arranged the rooms, and did much to make the occasion an attractive success.

The president of the association, Mr. Chas. Q. C. Leigh presided at the banquet in a graceful manner. The following toasts were features of the evening:

"The Paducah Young Men's Christian Association"—Mr. David Flournoy.

"What is There About the Young Men's Christian Association to Command the Co-operation and support of Thoughtful Men Everywhere."—Rev. B. E. Reed.

"How Can the Association be Enabled to More Effectively Reach Young Men of Paducah for Jesus Christ."—Rev. Geo. W. Perryman.

A Statement of the Work, Past, Present and Future.—W. G. Escott, General Secretary.

Miss Virginia Lesh sang very delightfully, and Miss Ada Brazelton and Prof. Davis played an attractive duet.

Mr. J. D. Moequet in a very happy manner returned the thanks of the association to the ladies of the First Presbyterian church for their noble assistance, and for the success of the evening.

Altogether it was the most notable social event in the history of the Association and greatly enjoyed by all the guests. Much credit is due Secretary Escott for his able management.

KILLING NEAR MARION.

Marion, Ky., Oct. 8.—Grover Brown shot Allie Sizs three times fatally last night three miles from town. It was all on account of an old grudge.

Mr. Willis B. Ward and wife of Metropolis, but well known in Paducah, have gone to Shawnee, Oklahoma, to locate.

SOME DOUBT

Nothing Additional Heard From the Earlinton Suspects.

MARSHAL COLLINS AWAY

The Case All Depends on the Contents of the Packages Shipped South.

MR. BLEICH FEELS CONFIDENT

There is some doubt that the suspects arrested at Earlinton are the ones who burglarized Mr. John J. Bleich's jewelry establishment in the city and got away with $7,000 worth of jewelry last Thursday night. Today the police here have waited in vain for some intelligence confirming or denying that they are the right persons.

Messrs. J. J. Bleich and Ike Friedman returned this morning from Earlinton, and both are confident that the suspects are the right ones. There was nothing incriminating found about them, but Frank Taylor, the leader, admits that he is a crook, but none of them had anything to say about the Paducah robbery. The woman seems distressed, and seemed on the eve of breaking down several times and Mr. Bleich thinks she will eventually confess.

Marshal Collins is away, and nothing is known of his whereabouts. It may be that he is still at work on the case or that he has gone to Aberdeen, Miss., to investigate the packages sent there.

Up to the time of Mr. Bleich's departure from Earlinton nothing had been received from the Aberdeen authorities, and it was not known whether or not they had received the messages relative to holding the goods.

Grave doubts are entertained, however, about the suspects being the right persons, as the ones who robbed the store had about $100 in cash, and there was no occasion for their beating their way on a freight train, as these were doing. One theory of the local police is that the burglars packed the goods the night of the robbery and got away on one of the fast trains the same night, checking it as baggage, and are far away by this time.

DEATH IN BALLARD.

Mr. R. C. Coloy, aged 51, died yesterday from rheumatism at his home three miles from Hinkleville. The funeral took place today, burial at the Palestine graveyard.

to increase the salary, or to leave where it is, if it seems fit. The ordinance committee has been instructed to bring in an ordinance raising the salaries of the police officers and of the city attorney, but Mayor Lang would probably veto both ordinances if they pass the council, which is extremely doubtful. The city attorney now gets a fair salary, and ten per cent of the back taxes collected, and at one time there was paid him as his share of the back taxes, $800. Owing to the election's being so near at hand, the mayor could kill both ordinances if he chose, after they passed the council, by holding them the limit allowed by law and then vetoing them.

The Republicans do not desire illegal registrations. They will not tolerate however, the palpable scheme to intimidate voters and keep them away from the registration by asking them insulting questions. Where there is a reasonable doubt that a man is entitled to register and vote, and there are grounds for presuming that he is an ex-convict, to ask if he has been in the penitentiary is both advisable and necessary. But to put the question to everybody who happens to be black betrays the sinister motives of the politicians, and in a number of instances complaints have been made from voters who allege they were thus kept from registering. It is only a bluff to frighten away the ignorant, and will not be permitted on the supplementary registration day.

There should be some way for strangers to find out what street they are on when they are in Paducah. There is not a single thing to indicate the name of any thoroughfare, either those that are named or those that are numbered. It causes a great deal of confusion especially to strangers, who have to look up some one who knows and inquire when they desire to locate themselves. The names of all the streets that are named, and the numbers of those that are numbered should be on every corner, especially in the business portion of the city. There is now not a sign nor any other kind of indication of the street's names or numbers, and has never been for many years past. It is time the council was doing something to remedy this oversight.

If election officers are to be permitted, as the deputy county clerk intimates they have been permitted to do in the past, to sign the registration books after they have been turned over to the county clerk, the law requiring them to be signed before the officers leave the registration might as well be repealed. If they can sign them a day or a week after the registration, they might as well not sign them at all. If left in the county clerk's office unsigned there would be nothing to prevent their being altered to suit anyone who might go in and take possession of them, whether Democrat or Republican. It seems that the law is observed very loosely in some quarters.

A week from today there will be a supplementary registration day, and all Republicans who have not registered must do so. There are about five hundred already accounted for who have failed to attend to this important duty, and they must show up with out fail next Tuesday if they expect to vote this fall or next year.

The affidavit filed to unseat Judge Cantrill was an effort in the right direction, but Judge Cantrill is not the kind of a man to get off, for by vacating the bench he might thus be the means of Powers securing a fair trial, and he does not want him to have a fair trial.

The British are evidently not averse by the recent victory of the steel trust in America. They are preparing to organize a trust to fight the gigantic American combinations. We can see the finish of the audacious Britons now.

With the appointment of a Democrat to an important office by President Roosevelt and the election of a McKinley goldbug, public printer of Paducah, is begins to look as if the millennium is not very far away, after all.

Mr. J. C. Utterback is a popular young man as evidenced by the number of offices he holds. He is at present public printer, a county election commissioner, and a member of the board of education. His resignation

BABY'S BUSINESS
A healthy baby is comfortable; and that is enough for a baby. His business in life is to grow.

Aside from acute diseases, his food is the cause of most of his troubles. But Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil delivers him from it.

He isn't sick; only a little hitch, somewhere, in his machine for turning food into growth.

It is a great thing to do, for a baby, to help him over a hitch with mere food—the emulsion is food that has the tact to get there.

The tact to get there is medicine. We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

in the latter has been filed, but not accepted. The park committee of the council was not ready to report last night. The people of Paducah need other things worse than they do another park. They now have La Belle park, the Fountain avenue park, and last, but not least, Yelver park.

CONCERTED ACTION

Southern Illinois Farmers Take Steps to Protect Quail.

They Will Try to Keep Kentucky Hunters Away From Illinois.

Concerted action is being taken by the farmers of Southern Illinois in regard to quail shooting and the Kentucky hunters who shoot quail under the supposition that the last legislature failed to provide for the birds in the game law will come to grief. A large number of hunters from different states have visited Illinois the past few weeks. They admitted that they came for the purpose of killing quail, which were plentiful on account of the law in Illinois. The men said that they had been advised by their attorneys that there was no law against quail shooting; that the legislators had failed to mention the birds in the new law. Friday night the word passed from one game warden to another throughout all southern Illinois, and a meeting was called in each of the several sections of the state south of the Baltimore and Ohio road.

At most of the meetings it was admitted that the word quail had been omitted in the new game law, but the older heads of the party in attendance held that the word partridge, which was used in the bill, could be construed to mean quail, and that they proposed to stand by that construction of the law. In fact some of the older men said that they never heard of the word quail until within a few years, when the stringent game laws came into notice. The old men said that a quail was certainly a partridge and that if any man was brought up for shooting a partridge and that it was proven that he shot a quail he would be found guilty. A resolution was passed to the effect that any man caught with a quail in his possession should be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. A number of farmers at the meeting expressed the belief that southern Illinois had lost thousands of quail. Men had come in to communities and had carried off from fifty to one hundred apiece. The birds were very tame and were shot by the men in bunches. No chance was given the birds to escape.

Still, with all this ado and this erudite construction of the word "partridge," it is safe to venture that a quail will continue to be hunted in Illinois—or partridges—in Southern Illinois.

NEW BAND.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD ORGANIZED ONE HERE.

The "Woodmen of the World" lodge has organized a brass band to do its playing. The lodge has gotten together the old carnival band and several other new players, making a total membership of twenty-two men. The boys will go into rehearsal immediately and will make a good band. There are very few new players most of the members having had experience in bands before. The lodge furnishes all the uniforms, the practice hall, fuel, lights and every other expense connected with the band.

The lodge men are very enthusiastic over the outlook and think they will have a band that will out rival Dean's band.

The Thief... of Beauty

Thousands of young women are awaking to the fact that instead of glowing cheeks, bright eyes and smooth hair, they have faded, listless, and unattractive faces. The cause is the use of cheap, low-grade cosmetics. These are the worst enemies a woman has. They are the cause of skin diseases, and they are the cause of the loss of beauty. The only way to preserve beauty is by the use of high-grade cosmetics. The only way to get high-grade cosmetics is by the use of Bradfield's Female Regulator.

Bradfield's Female Regulator

NOTES OF THE RAILROADS

Engine Foreman Bob McCann has returned from Nelson, Ky., where he had been visiting relatives.

Mr. W. S. Richey of the paint shops went to Cincinnati last night on a several days' visit. He has been ill, and took the trip to recuperate.

Night Operator T. C. Martin removed his family from Nortonville to Paducah yesterday, and is residing at Tenth and Tennessee streets.

The stationary engine which ran through itself Saturday in the machine shops of the I. C., had been doing service steadily for the past fourteen years, and after an examination of the engine today it was found to be nearly completely worn out.

Operator J. B. Thomas was today transferred to the passenger depot from the yardmaster's office. He will remain there to take train orders until further orders. Operator Griffin will remain in the yard office and attend to the business of that department.

Two apprentice boys named Bethel and Tyre, who are employed in the machine shops of the I. C. here, engaged in a fight yesterday afternoon, and the latter was struck in the head with a wrench. The boys fought for several minutes, but were finally stopped before any more serious injury had been done.

The engine which was damaged in the wood working shops by the fire is expected in the city from Chicago today. It is practically a new machine, and will be placed in the machine shops. The engine taken from the machine shops will be overhauled and used here again. A new engine will arrive shortly, to be placed in the new shops when they are completed.

tends to please all classes of amusement lovers. The personal of the pear at The Kentucky on Wednesday,

ANNUAL MEETING.

THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL TO IN-CREASE ITS CAPITAL.
STOCK

The annual meeting of stockholders of the Illinois Central railroad will be held on Wednesday, October 16. It is proposed to increase the capital stock of the company from $60,000,000 to $70,000,000. The reason for the increase of $10,000,000 is to get funds to pay for additional cars and locomotives needed for the growing traffic on all the lines of the system, for the construction of additional sidetracks, second tracks and station terminals facilities, the reduction of grades and changes of alignment, the elimination of grades crossings at various places and for other improvement.

The stockholders will be asked to ratify the purchase of the Peoria, Decatur and Mattoon railroad from Peoria to Mattoon, the Mattoon and Evanston railroad, and some of its branches. All these lines are now being operated by the Illinois Central company, but the action of stockholders is necessary to complete the purchase.

ville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway will sell tickets to Nashville and ber 14. On October 8 will sell at tlemen who recently took a mineral and daughter went to Paducah today.

Judge James Campbell returned to yesterday. He represented heirs who owned property at Grand Rivers. The property was sold by order of court yesterday. The property consisted of town lots and brought $450.

Chas. Webb, Jr., of this place has purchased a lot from Mark Worten of Paducah, for $50.

Mrs. Edwards of Paducah is here looking after her land, on which she has given a mineral lease to Snow & Roberts of Chicago.

drummer, was here yesterday in the interest of J. B. Smith & Sons.

which he is a member is operating mines at Bissell's Mount.

yesterday on the charge of stealing a jug of whiskey Saturday night. The whiskey was brought up from Paducah on the packet, and belonged to Joe Mayhugh and Dave Connell. The trial of the accused is set for Thursday.

Mr. Victor Thomas and wife of Paducah are visiting relatives here.

ATTRACTION EXTRAORDINARY.

The new "Railroad Jack" is the title of the coming attraction to appear at The Kentucky, Wednesday matinee and night. This organization carries an enormous black maned South African man eating lion, the most ferocious as well as the king of beasts. Duke, as he is called, occupies one of the most important parts during the action of the play. A large sum of money is paid to a traveling circus manager to use this blood thirsty animal to devour a young lady who is the only living heir to a large fortune of which she is kept in ignorance by the villain who plans her destruction, that he may gain possession of it. The lady is cast into the lion's den in full view of the audience, and is rescued from under the lion's very paws by the tramp, who was in years past a lion tamer, and at one time was the trainer of Duke; the tramp happens on the scene just as the huge beast makes his mad leap which means death and destruction to the heirless, but at the sound of the tramp's voice he becomes as mild and docile as a lamb. During this part of the play there is also a great tornado scene takes place, a circus tent is blown to pieces in full view of the audience, one of the most sensational and realistic scenes on the American stage. Spectacles are interposed during the play, consisting of songs and dances, quartettes, trios, trick scenery, etc., making one of the most pleasing entertainments to visit The Kentucky this season.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Baptist church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the church. A full attendance of all members is most earnestly desired.
The "box" to be sent to the frontier is to be attended to, and other business of importance.
